Name:		Date:
A.P. Environmental Science		Mr. Romano
	SAFETY IN THE LABORATOR	ov.
	SAILTIN THE LABORATOR	X I
General Safety Guidelines:
make certain changes. If at any time  2. Upon entering the classroom or labora 3. Do not touch, inhale, heat, or mix any 4. Work in a careful, organized manner. 5. Never consume food or beverages in unless you are instructed to do so. 6. Clothing and jewelry should be appropriate interfere with the laboratory activity. W 7. Always tie back longer hair when worl 8. If glassware is broken or breaks durin in the garbage. 9. Know where special safety and emerging the propriate in the garbage. 10. Always inspect glassware before usin 11. Report all spills, accidents, or injuries 12. Keep your worktable clean, dry, and under the propriate in the garbage.	king in a laboratory where there is an open flame or chig use, notify your teacher. Do not pick up broken glass gency equipment is kept and how to use it.  Ig it. Make sure that there are no cracks or chips and not oyour teacher immediately.  Incluttered. At the end of the laboratory period, clean unterproperty. Be sure that all gas jets, electrical equipmen	instructor for assistance.  ng. Do not touch anything until instructed to do so. by your teacher. dangerous and cannot be tolerated. pecimens, or lab equipment in your mouth  r, loose clothing, or or dangling jewelry that could emicals are being used. s yourself. Broken glass is not to be thrown  make sure it is clean before use.  up your work area, return all materials to the Safety with Chemicals:
are completely done with the lab proc for goggles or safety glasses. 15. If a chemical does get in your eye, do	n working with dangerous chemicals that might splatter edure and are no longer in contact with the chemicals in not rub your eye. Use the eyewash station or nearby forn in the laboratory. However, in a school setting, mainly	being used. Everyday glasses are never a substitute sink to flush your eye for up to 20 minutes.
<ul> <li>17. If a chemical gets on your skin, immed</li> <li>18. Read the label of a container three tin</li> <li>19. Use only the amount of chemicals cal as explained to you by your instructor</li> <li>20. Use a dropper or suction bulb with a p</li> </ul>	diately notify your instructor and then rinse the area usines before using any of the contents of the container. It led for in the directions. Do not pour excess chemicals; do not just empty chemicals into the sink or garbage. Dipette to transfer liquid chemicals. Never use your mount off by any substance. If you are looking to detect an o	Never use any chemicals from unlabeled containers. back into their containers. Dispose used chemicals uth.
Safety with Electricity:
<ul><li>23. Do not allow cords from hot plates or</li><li>24. Do not use any electrical equipment v</li></ul>	with dry hands, and be sure that the work area is dry. microscopes to dangle from worktables. with frayed cords, loose connections, or exposed wires. man outlet pull it out by the plug, not the cord.	. Report such equipment to your teacher.
regulations set forth above. I am aware that my	and emergency techniques needed for my science class a safety and the safety of my classmates depend on my rovided by my teacher and/or school administration.
Student's Signature	Parent's Signature	 Date