

1. Perpetual Resources (a type of renewable resource) resources that are inexhaustible, regardless their rate of use Examples:

Aim:
-------------

2. Renewable Resources on a human time scale, resources that naturally replenish themselves quickly (hours to decades)
Examples:
Special Note:

3. Nonrenewable Resources
a resource that does not replenish itself at a sufficient rate in human time-frames
Examples: